

Commissioners Will Not Play Petworth Today---Open Letter on Revised Schedule

SCHEDULE IS CHANGED IN POST-SEASON GAMES

Teams Will Play Up to September 6---Big Game Shifted to That Date---News and Gossip of Plays and Players.

The Commissioners and Petworth will not play this afternoon, as announced this morning. The manager and captain of the Commissioners and members of the team are not pleased with the revised or shifted series as announced by the papers this morning, and have set forth their views of the situation as follows:

The Commissioners are ready to play off their two postponed games—one with Petworth and one with Cornell—at any time set by the commission after the expiration of the original schedule set, namely, September 2.

On September 2 the Sunday School and Suburban are scheduled to play at Thirteenth and D streets, at the special request of the Sunday School team. A death in the ranks of the team prevents them playing; hence, that game is off and also becomes a postponed game. On September 3 the post-season schedule is over, with certain postponed games to be played; first, that between the Departmental and Suburban; second, that between Capital City and Departmental; third, Sunday School and Suburban. Now, the Commissioners will play off their postponed game with Petworth on the 3d of September at Capital City Park; their next postponed game is scheduled to be played on the next playing day, Monday, the 5th, as set forth by the commission when a schedule was published.

WM. N. HANDIBOE, Captain Commissioner B. Club.
E. A. FULLER, Manager Commissioner B. Club.

The amateur commission has announced that there will be a meeting on Tuesday evening at Spaulding & Bros. store. The additional information and evidence in regard to the case of Phipps will be taken up in the near future.

An analysis of the letter from the Commissioners reveals the fact that they think Cornell Company is getting the best of the case. It is understood that Cy McDonald, Curly Brown, and Al Handiboe will be with Cornell Company by Tuesday in time to line up in the section. The Commissioners as all of these players are eligible. Naturally, the Commissioners do not wish to lose the other team get the better of the bargain. Those who made up the revised schedule, and it is understood by a number, that the secretary made the schedule up, does not have the teams play off in the regular order of postponement which is in direct violation of the rules under the schedule as first printed.

More facts will be brought to light in the case in the next few days. It would seem that year in and year out sees the same trouble arise and the same difficulties encountered. There seems to be a way out of the dilemma which all know of but fail to apply.

On September 10 the team representing Washington will play in New York against its representative team, Philadelphia. It will also play New York in the double-header. On September 17, Washington and New York will play Philadelphia at Philadelphia, and on the 20th, the other two teams will play here for the finals.

There are several hints thrown out that there may be changes in the personnel of the amateur commission. It is strongly intimated that resignations may occur in the next few days. Certain it is that much of its work is not appreciated and those who are the prime movers are slow to realize that umpires and members of the amateur commission have about the same disagreeable jobs.

Rain played the important part in yesterday's calendar, no games being pulled off. From indications, it is more than likely that there may be more rain today, in which event it is probable that the schedule will be pushed on into the middle of next week. If the post-season games are to be started in other cities September 10, there is little chance of the winner of this series to get a rest. Both New York and Philadelphia have finished their amateur series, and are waiting to begin the intercity series. It is understood that much remains to be done over in the way of detail before the series is started. With all the literature extant, it is to be hoped that the series is to be an actuality.

The Cornell Company team is, indeed, in bad way physically. Vaughn has a bad ankle, and Phipps' finger is just healing. These two stars and the team materially, and their loss is greatly felt.

In Section B, Twining will play the Columbia Printers today the only game in the section. Twining should have little difficulty in winning out over the Printers, who have some down the line lately to many defeats. The game with the Herald seems to have taken the starch out of them. Twining suffered an awful setback at the hands of the American Security. Perhaps the teams will soothe their wounds, although Twining may get revenge on the Columbia team.

President Poljanec of the amateur commission, was suddenly called out of town yesterday, and the board of arbitration was forced to suspend action in the case of Phipps. The board expects to meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock, when the matter will be taken up and a decision rendered. The amateur commission baseball has displayed a great amount of interest in the case, which involves the whole Cornell team in the post-season series.

The Washington Herald team will play a double-header at Falls Church, Va., on Labor Day, and the newspaper men expect to land a double victory. Manager Graf is elated over the showing made by his team in the post-season series, with his aggregation in a crippled condition, and he is already planning for next season.

The Herald team will play Saturday's game on the grounds at Fifth street and Florida avenue northeast, instead of at Thirteenth and D streets, the matter having been arranged so that this will be satisfactory to all concerned.

Glancing over the games played from day to day in the series, it would seem that Macaroni of the Cornell Company team, is the leading hitter. Macaroni has been delivering the goods for the rarer company all the season, and should be well in the lead when the final averages are made up. It was thought that Merrill Vaughn was the leading hitter, as he can wait them out, and possesses the ability to hit, too. Certainly no player ever started in any series more successfully than did Vaughn. He was the first batter to face a pitcher in the post-season series. Robertson of the Commissioners, wound up and hurled the ball across the plate. Vaughn hit that first one a mile over the right field fence. Certainly the start was one of the most spectacular ever seen.

INDIANS SATISFIED WITH NEW RULES

CARLEISLE, Pa., Sept. 2.—Football Coach Glenn S. Warner, of the Carlisle Indian School, is pleased with the new rules. He believes that they will result in giving a more spectacular game, and will consequently be much more interesting to the public and less dangerous for the players than the code governing the game in former years. Coach Warner last year did some experimenting along the very lines that have been covered by the new rules. He said that he thought the forward pass would be used more than ever, and believes that open and freak formations will be greatly in vogue during the coming season.

The Indian coach thinks there will be a tendency to do away with the forward pass, because of the institution of the direct pass. However, he does not think that the rule against the making of flying tackles will materially interfere with effective tackling of a runner, because flying tackles have never been so much used as is commonly supposed. The new rule will practically only affect tackles made from the rear, in which case it will not generally be necessary to pull a runner down by seizing his shoulders. Warner thinks that the rule changes remove the necessity of having to play abnormally big men on the line, and assures that the athlete of ordinary build will be best adapted to football. This, consequently, gives the smaller eleven a better chance to develop stronger teams than formerly.

The Carlisle Indians will start to work much later this year than usual. However, a few of the students who have returned from their summer outings expect to gamble on the gridiron at Carlisle during the latter part of the week. The Indians play a hard schedule, fourteen games being listed. It follows:

- September 21—Villanova at Harrisburg.
- September 28—McKeesport at Carlisle.
- October 1—Western Maryland at Carlisle.
- October 8—Dickinson at Carlisle.
- October 11—Gettysburg at Carlisle.
- October 15—Syracuse at Syracuse.
- October 22—Princeton at Princeton.
- October 23—Pennsylvania at Philadelphia.
- November 5—Virginia at Washington.
- November 12—Navy at Annapolis.
- November 19—Johns Hopkins at Baltimore.
- November 24—Brown at Providence.

COMMISSION ACTS AGAINST MURPHY

President of Chicago National Team Now Wants Season to Close Early.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 2.—Tucked away among the recommendations of the national baseball commission is one which may cause a row in the National League. The commission appointed President Lynch, of the National League, a committee of one to induce two warring club owners to make peace and bring the National League season to an early close, so the world's series may be started no later than October 11. The recommendation was little less than a slap at President Charles W. Murphy, of the Chicago Club, and President Stanley Robinson, of the St. Louis Club, both of whom have declared that the National League season would not come to a close before October 15.

Robinson has declared positively the National League schedule would be played out as adopted and Murphy agreed with him in a half-hearted manner. It was Murphy's stubbornness in the first place that caused all the trouble. The Cubs' head was one of the supporters of the 18-game season. Later, when Murphy saw the Cubs will survive together, although Twining suffered an awful setback at the hands of the American Security. Perhaps the teams will soothe their wounds, although Twining may get revenge on the Columbia team.

PIRATE FANS QUIT.

Pittsburg fans seem to be hard losers. Monday there were over 15,000 present at the games, while yesterday there were 15,000 less. The double defeat, it seems, saddened the hearts of the great majority of fans, with the result that, despite the fact that New York is one of the greatest drawing cards in the league, the attendance was one of the smallest of the season.

TRAINER OF HORSES TO DESERT AMERICA

"Jimmy" Rowe Will Handle Duryea Stable in England.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The passing of thoroughbred racing in this section of the country will result in England annexing the best trainer of handicappers America has produced since the days of four-mile heat racing.

James, known to his intimates as "Jimmy" Rowe, who placed James R. Keene at the head of American breeders and owners by his wonderful handling of the product of the Castleton stud, will train at Newmarket next year. He has signed a contract to handle the stable of Hermann R. Duryea, and will sail in a few weeks to take over the horses that are to sport the green and white during this fall's racing.

Rowe trained for Keene for fourteen years. During that time the stable annexed more than $2,000,000 in purses alone. He has saddled four Futurity winners, and winners of every big handicap run off by a horse in a career. Starting as a jockey—he was a capable one—he served as a starter after he became too heavy to ride, and later drifted into the training side of the game.

ST. LOUIS TO TRAIN WITH CHICAGO TEAM

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 2.—The Cardinal squad will train at Excelsior Springs, Mo., next year, with Charles Comiskey's White Sox, who last got into shape there in 1908, when they appropriated the world's championship.

Excelsior Springs is thirty miles from Kansas City. The waters of the springs are good for the stomach and liver.

CLEVELAND RECRUIT IS HIGHLY TOUTED

Joss and Kennedy Backing Mayberry as a Real Phenom—Good Record.

In Fleet Mayberry, whom Cleveland bought from the Danville club of the Virginia League, Scouts Addie Joss and Sam Kennedy believe McGuffie will find a pitcher equal to Fenwick, who was bought from the same club.

Mayberry has won sixteen, lost seven, and tied one, in addition to playing twenty or more games at second and third bases. Most of his defeats were sustained when his club was shot to pieces through accident, he having the small end of two 1 to 0 and one 2 to 0 scores inside of ten days. He has pitched three shut-outs and has been hit for double figures but three times this season. Sixteen of his games have been small hit affairs. He is noted for his ability to field his position. He pitched thirty-seven games for Danville in 1909, having 133 chances and did not make an error, while his first misplay this season was on August 16. He is 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighs 190 pounds. His home is in Oak Ridge, N. C., where he attended college. This is his second year as a professional.

MARTO IS COMING.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—By his decisive victory over "Fighting Joe" Hyland, at the Longacre A. C., last night, Johnny Marto, the cyclonic West Side lightweight, is believed to have placed himself in line for bigger game. Marto fought one of the best bouts of his career, and for the last seven rounds of the ten he put it all over Hyland. Marto fought a la Battling Nelson, displaying any attempt at science, and relying wholly on his rugged aggressiveness.
